Sol Abbot - Lead Vocalist

Solomon Abbott is 13 years old. He has always had an ear for music and began creating his own jazz pieces when he was 3 years old. (Though he would likely change the lyrics today.) Besides music, he really loves spending time with his friends and family, enjoys playing football, writing, drawing or painting. On the list of possibilities for his future, he includes chef and stand-up comedian.

Sol is a soulful musician. He is gifted at the guitar and drums and really shines when he's singing.

Finn Abbott - Drums

Finn Abbott is 11 years old. He fell in love with Led Zeppelin in 2020 and his journey through classic rock began. Around the same time, he found his natural abilities on the drums and would often spend hours a day working on his craft. His musical tastes have expanded and he loves to nerd out on rock history and song origins. In addition to the drums, he is rapidly becoming deft at the guitar and is beginning to play the piano. When he's not playing music, he's playing football with his friends or hugging a dog. His future goals include becoming a professional musician and husky puppy owner.

Carson Frankenbach - Lead Guitars

Carson Frankenbach has been playing guitar for 5 years. His favorite guitar is his Les Paul. Carson will attend Maryville University in St. Louis this fall to study Sports Business Management.

Logan Stevens - Lead Bass

Hello, my name is Logan Stevens. I'm a pretty typical 15 year old boy that's into rock music. I'm the bass player for this band so I mostly just stay in my corner and weep, but occasionally I might bust out a couple of cool tricks. My main instrument is guitar, which I have been playing for about 6 or 7 years now and I started playing bass about 7 months ago in preparation for this show. Outside of music, I'm a pretty comedic goofball who almost never takes anything seriously. With that, I annoy my parents and family a lot, which might contribute to why I am the last child. Just ask them. Anyways, I'll try not to ruin the songs too much so you can enjoy the show!

Quincy Meyer - Keys, Organ & Electric Piano

Quincy Meyer is a 17 year-old junior at East Buchanan HS in Gower, MO. He is a multi-instrumentalist, and plays piano, bass guitar, guitar, drums, and stand up bass. Quincy has played in multiple groups, including with Lanham Music in St. Joseph, Weymouth Studios in Kansas City, and his band, "Snow Day Jam," which has played local festivals for the past two years. He also enjoys writing his own music. Eventually he would like to attend college and major in music, music technology, or music composition.

Micah Wolfe - Drums, Guitar & Mandolin

Micah holds a bmus performance degree from Middlesex University in the UK, and has been teaching in the northland for the past 7 years since his return to the US after 11 years in London. Micah is incredibly proud of all the hard work that these amazing young musicians have put in preparing for today and he sincerely hopes you enjoy the show!!

Woulfe Music LLC is an intensive music school specializing in private instruction and live performance on a wide range of instruments. Ideally located in the northland in the historic Imeson Park house in Platte Woods.
